QUEST FOR EXCELLENCE

A Brief Report on one day Workshop on “NAAC’s Revised Accreditation framework and guidance for SSR preparation”, organized by IQAC, Janata Mahavidyalaya, Chandrapur.

One day workshop on “NAAC’s Revised Accreditation framework and guidance for SSR preparation”, was organized on 25th September 2018 by IQAC, Janata Mahavidyalaya, Chandrapur.

The workshop was inaugurated by the hands of honorable Shri. Ashok S. Jiwatode, Secretary Chanda Shikshan Prasarak Mandal and Principal Janata College of Education, Dr. N.S.Dharmadhikari, Educationist, Ambajogai and other dignataries.

Dr. N.R.Baig, IQAC coordinator, Janata Mahavidyalaya in the welcome address laid emphasis on the core values of NAAC and development of quality culture in institutions through internal quality assurance cell. She also explained the objectives behind organizing this workshop and presented program details. Principal Dr. M. Subhas in his introductory speech explained about the intricacies involved in the revised accreditation framework and the challenges before institutions in rural areas. Principal, Dr. M.Subhas, Dr. A.S.Jiwatode and other dignitaries honored the resource person.

The workshop witnessed 126 participants from various colleges affiliated to Gondwana University Gadchiroli. Many of the participants were from non-accredited colleges, those who were preparing for Ist cycle accreditation process.

The workshop comprised of mainly four sessions, beginning with key note address on quality culture development and awareness on NAAC’s revised accreditation framework by Dr. N. S. Dharmadhikari, followed Guidance on SSR preparation, Q and A session, feedback on workshop by participants and valedictory function.

The speaker should have spoken at a moderated pace. Because of the high speed noting down some important points was difficult. Again, the meeting hall should have attached facilities like toilets.
