A REPORT ON
FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM
HOW TO IMPROVE CLASSROOM TEACHING FOR THE BENEFIT OF STUDENTS?

DATE: 14/03/2018

VENUE: SEMINAR HALL

After the semester results of winter 2017 exams, a discussion and seminar on How to improve classroom teaching for the benefit of students, was organized by IQAC as a faculty development program for the teaching staff of the college.

All the faculty members were asked to give their views and discuss on the topic. A power point presentation was given by Dr. D. M. Gaidhane on different teaching methodologies which could be incorporated for effective results.

Number of participants: 33

Outcome:

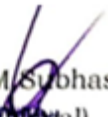

1. Everyone presented ideas on how the results would be increased.
2. Possible reasons for low results were brainstormed.
3. Everyone agreed to take actions for the improvement of students' performance.

Dr. M.Subhas presided over the program along with Vice-principals Dr. A.K.Mahatale, Dr. K.C. Patil, Dr. V. N. Bodhale and IQAC coordinator, Dr. N. R. Baig.

Dr. M. Subhas elaborated his views on effective methods of teaching. He said that teaching should be enjoyed by a teacher as well as students. Dr. N.R.Baig in her address explained the role of a teacher as a facilitator and further added that teaching can be made effective by the use of ICT as students have become more Tech friendly.

Dr. I.S.Kondra, Asst. Coordinator IQAC conducted the program and vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. S.D.Misar.
